Call for Applications: Consent Educator

Title: Consent Educator (4 positions)

Duration: 9-month part-time contract

Total hours: Maximum 200 for the academic year (hours vary depending on number of programs scheduled)

Hourly pay: $25.00 (+4% vacation)

Position Start Date: Monday August 21, 2023

Position End Date: Friday April 26, 2023

Application Deadline: Wednesday June 28, 2023

About Carleton University’s Sexual Assault Support Centre (CUSASC):

CUSASC provides sexual violence support services to students, staff, and faculty members. We believe survivors, and we believe that survivors are the experts in their own lives. Therefore, we will listen, provide resources and support you as you choose the best option for you. Our services are free, confidential, and available to all Carleton University members.

About Campus Safety Services (CSS):

We recognize our shared responsibility to maintain a safe and inclusive campus while affording dignity and respect to every individual. Through community partnerships, our objective is to improve the quality of life of all community members while building mutual respect and trust.

Position Summary:

Carleton University’s Department of Equity and Inclusive Communities Sexual Assault Support Centre and Campus Safety Services (CSS) are looking for four students who are passionate about sexual violence prevention, building relationships with campus partners, and cultivating a caring and safer campus. These new positions will be tasked with promoting and assisting with the planning of CUSASC’s and CSS’s awareness campaigns and programs. Consent Educators will co-develop and co-facilitate trainings for students in matters relating to bystander intervention, consent education, and sexual violence prevention. The candidate for this role must be available to attend mandatory evening and weekend trainings scheduled in August.
The mandatory training dates are as follows:

1. Monday August 21, 2023
2. Tuesday August 22, 2023
3. Wednesday August 23, 2023
4. Thursday August 24, 2023
5. Friday August 25, 2023

Each training will be scheduled for three hours, and exact times are to be determined.

Primary Duties Include:

- Maximum 100 hours per semester
- Advocate and share information on the importance of consent and healthy relationships through social media and organizing tabling events in high traffic areas in the university (i.e. Fenn Lounge, Nideyinàn, etc.)
- Work with staff to pilot and launch a Sexual Violence Prevention Course on Brightspace for students
- Co-facilitate workshops and trainings for students on sexual violence prevention and consent
- Assist with organizing programming, social media campaigns, and workshops for students during the CÚriousAbout Campaign, Sexual Assault Awareness Week, 16 Days of Activism, Black History Month, Crime Prevention Month and more.
- Represent CUSASC and CSS alongside staff at public facing events such as Panda Game and Capital Hoops
- Attend scheduled team meetings

Qualifications:

- Current Carleton University student
- Passionate about sexual violence prevention and building consent culture and on campus from an intersectional, de-colonial, and anti-racist lens
- Good understanding of systemic forms of oppression that underpin sexual violence including but not limited to racism, colonialism, ableism, sexism, transphobia, and homophobia
- Strong knowledge of sexual violence including consent, bystander intervention, survivor-centered approaches, etc.
- Able to communicate sexual violence prevention in an accessible and inclusive manner
- Good group facilitation skills
- Good research and writing skills
- Able to work within a team and individually
- Organized, collaborative, and good interpersonal skills
- Available to work some evenings and weekends

How to apply: Please send cover letter, CV and contact information for two references to equity@carleton.ca

For more information, please email: equity@carleton.ca